

Biola University

Digital Commons @ Biola

Biola Library's 20th Anniversary

Library History

3-2000

Lemons for everyone

Chimes

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.biola.edu/library-anniversary>

Recommended Citation

Chimes, "Lemons for everyone" (2000). Biola Library's 20th Anniversary. 5.
<https://digitalcommons.biola.edu/library-anniversary/5>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Library History at Digital Commons @ Biola. It has been accepted for inclusion in Biola Library's 20th Anniversary by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Biola. For more information, please contact university.archives@biola.edu.

Lemons For Everyone!!

When a report was recently released regarding the financial status of the library fund, Clyde Cook took action. Beginning last Monday, he has been out on the corner of Rosecrans and Biola Avenue each day from four a.m. until midnight, selling lemonade for ten cents a cup to passing cars. "As President of this university, it is my job to go the extra mile so that the students don't have to," said Cook, who hand squeezes 500 lemons each night in order to keep up with the rising demand for his lemonade. "Sure, Anabelle and I don't get much sleep anymore, but it is worth it if our students get their library." "Lemon is my new favorite scent," said Cook, who also sells the lemon rinds as scented decorations

by Sally Tulip
SNOOZE EDITOR

for the home and office. Cook is also planning on selling homemade baked goods, all of which will continue with the lemon theme. Lemon cookies, lemon cake, lemon meringue pie, lemon bread, and lemon bars will all be available early next week, depending on how quickly the Umpa Lumpas in Cook's basement can produce the goods.

jump to page 6

One year
INNERCITY.

One neighborhood
LOVING GOD. LOVING PEOPLE.

Mission Year

THIS IS WHAT YOU'VE BEEN LOOKING FOR.

www.missionyear.org 1.888.340.YEAR